

AnVision - BIOGRAPHY

Polish act AnVision shape their sound around Progressive Rock and Prog-Metal, expressing heavy guitar riffs amongst delicate melodies. With 3 albums under their belt, numerous tour dates including tour with Tarja Turunen throughout Europe in 2017, and an overwhelming amount of rave reviews, AnVision continue to power through Poland, Europe and beyond...

Read on to delve into the history and achievements of AnVision...

AnVision is the one of the top polish melodic prog metal bands founded in 2007 by guitarist Greg Ziolek, drummer Marcin "Larz" Duchnik and the first vocalist Marcin Gadek. The first band line up was completed by keyboardist Andrzej Niewiedomski and bassist Artur Serwin.

In 2010 they released the first EP titled "Eyes Wide Shut" and placed one song " Why Shouldn't I Get To Heaven" on compilation album "Downtown Metal vol. 8" which has been released in USA, Canada and Mexico.

In 2011 new musicians joined the band. Vocalist Marek "MarQus" Ostrowski and Keyboardist Lukas Piwowonski.

In 2012 AnVision released their first long – play album titled "AstralPhase". The album has been noticed and appreciated by critics and fans alike, and is recieving excellent reviews from around the world.

In 2013 AnVision changed the line up again. Bassist Karol "Karaluz" Wadowski and Keyboardist Waldemar "Valdi" Rozanski" joined the band.

In 2015 AnVision played on Prog The Castle Festival in Heidelberg (Germany)

The second AnVision's album, titled "New World" was released on Friday May 13 2016. For two songs from this album, "I'm Gone Away" and "Around The Corner" were made video clips.

In 2017 AnVision has played a tour supporting Tarja Turunen in Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, Greece and Turkey

The same year AnVision played on Maximum Rock Festival in Bucharest (Romania)

Third album titled "Love And Hate" was released April 25 2020. and for the song "Homeless Heart" which is coming from this album, the video clip has been released.

Current AnVision Line-up:

Marek "MarQus" Ostrowski - vocal
Grzegorz "Greg" Ziółek - guitar
Marcin "Larz" Duchnik - drums
Waldemar "valdi" Rózański - keyboards
Karol "Karaluz" Wadowski - bas